The First Annual Integrative Psychiatry Conference (AIPC)
The Many Faces of Delusions, Psychosis, and Schizophrenia
Call for Papers

About Us, Location & Date
The Psychiatry Graduate Student Association (PGSA) invites all university students and Faculty members to present at the First Annual Integrative Psychiatry Conference (AIPC) on The Many Faces of Delusions, Psychosis, and Schizophrenia, which will be held on May 26th-27th, 2017 at McGill University (Montréal, Canada).

Conference Objective
The conference will provide a forum for researchers to share their knowledge, ideas, and different perspectives on the etiology, various treatment approaches, issues regarding the taxonomy of the schizophrenic spectrum (delusions, psychosis, schizophrenic disorder subtypes), and the comorbidity between schizophrenia and other mental disorders. Cross-cultural and integrative research approaches are also welcomed.

Submission Guidelines
We invite both Individual Paper and Poster presentation submissions. These must include an abstract of max. 500 words comprised of the following subsections: (i) Background, (ii) Aims/Objectives, (iii) Methods, (iv) Results/Potential Outcomes, and (v) Discussion/Implications (submitted in Times New Roman size 12 font, single-spaced). The deadline for abstract submission is February 28th, 2017.

Submissions must include the following:
1. Author name(s)
2. Title
3. Valid email address
4. Research affiliation
5. Research track (Neuroscience, Psychology, Philosophy, Clinical, Other)

Individual Paper presentations are allocated a maximum of 15 minutes, followed by an additional 5 minutes for questions and discussion. Poster presentation details will be announced via email upon acceptance to the conference.

Two prizes will be awarded: one for the best Paper presentation and the other for the best Poster presentation.
